1.0 Purpose and intent

Greenfields Academy is committed to ensuring that the exams management and administration process is run effectively and efficiently. This exam policy will ensure that:

- All aspects of the centre exam process is documented and other relevant exams-related policies, procedures and plans are signposted.
- The workforce is well informed and supported.
- All centre staff involved in the exams process clearly understand their roles and responsibilities.
- All exams and assessments are conducted in accordance with JCQ and awarding body regulations, guidance and instructions, thus ensuring that the integrity and security of the examination/assessment system is maintained at all times and is not brought into disrepute” [JCQ General regulations for approved centres].
- Exam candidates understand the exams process and what is expected of them.

This policy is reviewed annually to ensure ways of working in the centre are accurately reflected and that exams and assessments are conducted to current JCQ (and awarding body) regulations, instructions, and guidance. This policy will be communicated to all relevant centre staff.

2.0 Roles and Responsibilities

"The head of centre is responsible to the awarding bodies for making sure all examinations/assessments are conducted according to the instructions, and the qualification specifications issued by the awarding bodies.

The head of centre may not appoint themselves as the examinations officer.

Head of centre

- Understands the contents, refers to and directs relevant centre staff to annually updated JCQ publications
- Ensures the National Centre Number Register Annual Update (administered on behalf of the JCQ member awarding bodies by OCR) is responded to and approves the Head of Centre formal declaration
- Ensures the exams officer (EO) attends appropriate training events offered by awarding bodies, MIS providers and other external providers to enable the exam process to be effectively managed and administered
- Ensures centre staff are supported and appropriately trained to undertake key tasks within the exams process
- Ensures centre staff undertake key tasks within the exams process and meet internal deadlines set by the EO
- Ensures that a teacher who teaches the subject being examined, or a senior member of teaching staff who has had overall responsibility for the candidate's preparation for the examination, is not an invigilator during the examination or on-screen test
- Ensures security within the examination process is managed according to JCQ and awarding body regulations, guidance, and instructions
- Ensures risks to the exam process are assessed and appropriate risk management processes/contingency plans are in place
- Ensures required internal appeals procedures are in place
- Ensures a disability policy for exams showing the centre's compliance with relevant legislation is in place
- Ensures the centre has documented processes in place relating to access arrangements and reasonable adjustments
- Ensures staff are only entered for qualifications through the centre where entry through another centre is not available
- Ensures the appropriate steps are taken where a candidate being entered for exams is related to a member of centre staff

Exam contingency plan

The Exam Contingency Policy is kept on school premises both as a hard copy and electronic copy. "It is the responsibility of the head of centre to ensure that the centre has in place a written examination contingency plan/examinations policy which covers all aspects of examination administration. This will allow members of the senior leadership team to have a robust contingency plan in place, minimising risk to examination administration, should the examinations officer be absent at a crucial stage of the examination cycle. (The examination contingency plan/examinations policy should also reinforce procedures in the event of the centre being unavailable for examinations owing to an unforeseen emergency.)

Internal appeals procedures

The Internal Appeals Policy is kept on school premises both as a hard copy and electronic copy. The centre agrees to have in place, and be available for inspection purposes, a written internal appeals procedure relating to internal assessment decisions and to ensure that details of this procedure are made widely available and accessible to all candidates.

Disability policy (Exams)

The Disability (Exams) Policy is kept on school premises both as a hard copy and electronic copy. The centre agrees to recognise its duties towards disabled candidates as defined under the terms of the Equality Act 2010. This must include a duty to explore and provide access to suitable courses, submit applications for reasonable adjustments and make reasonable adjustments to the service the centre provides to disabled candidates. A written disability policy setting out how the centre seeks to comply with the Equality Act 2010 and fully supporting disabled candidates must be available for inspection purposes.

Access Arrangements Policy

The Access Arrangement Policy is kept on school premises both as a hard copy and electronic copy. The centre agrees to have a written process in place to not only check the qualification(s) of their specialist assessor(s) but that the assessment process is administered correctly.

The examinations officer or quality assurance co-ordinator is the person appointed by a head of centre to act on behalf of the centre in matters relating to the administration of awarding body examinations and assessments.
