

English – Pupils will be exploring the History of English language with the thematic book of 'At the sign of the sugared plum, focusing on characters within the story and writing diary writing and what a day in the life of the characters would be like during the plague.

Computing – Pupils will begin to look at modelling data using spreadsheets.

History – Pupils will explore the causes, spread, and consequences of the Black Death in 14th-century Europe. Through enquiry-based learning, they will examine how the pandemic affected all aspects of medieval life—from medicine and religion to social structure and the economy.

Music – Pupils will develop core band musicianship skills through the exploration of the "Four-Chord Trick"—a common chord progression found in countless popular songs. Pupils will learn to play, improvise, and compose using the I–V–vi–IV progression across different keys and instruments.

Religious education – Pupils will explore the challenges of being a Muslim teenager in Britain today.

Physical Education – Pupils are taking part in striking and fielding activities focusing on catching the ball, using different blowing techniques and hitting the ball into space.

PSHE & British Values – Pupils will explore their place in society and the wider world, developing the knowledge, skills, and values needed to become active, responsible citizens. Topics include relationships, trust within relationships and roles within families.

Pinewood
Term 6 Provision map

Outdoor Education – The pupils will participate in an introduction to kayaking. Practicing water safety and water confidence. Pupils will also be focusing on turning and rotation within the boat.

Maths – Pupils will strengthen their number sense through activities designed to deepen their understanding of place value, number relationships, and efficient calculation strategies. Building on this foundation, they will be developing constructing, measuring and using geometric notation as well as geometric reasoning, where they will be measuring angles on a straight line, within a circle and within shapes.

Science – Pupils will explore ecosystems as dynamic communities of living organisms interacting with their physical environments. They will investigate key concepts such as food chains and food webs, habitats, adaptation, and the delicate balance of interdependence.

Geography – Pupils will explore the factors that influence population changes around the world, including birth rates, death rates, migration, and urbanisation. They will investigate the effects of these changes on local, national, and global scales, examining the challenges and opportunities that arise from population growth or decline, pupils will be focusing on population within the local area.

Art & Technology – Pupils will explore the key artistic concepts of Repetition, Angle, Texture, and Shape (RATS) to enhance their understanding and skills in visual composition. Pupils will engage in the creative process of toy making, from initial concept to final product.

Careers and life skills – Pupils will develop the skills and strategies needed to explore a wide range of career opportunities and make informed decisions about their future pathways.