

English – Pupils will continue developing their understanding of transactional non-fiction texts. Pupils will focus on Q6 and Q7 of the GCSE language paper. Pupils will further their analysis with a focus on language techniques.

Careers- Pupils will research different careers and learn what skills and qualities they have as individuals. Pupils will identify key qualities of a good leader, take part in team building activities and consider careers that interest them.

History – Pupils will look at the cold war and the development of escalation after the building of the Berlin Wall

World Views – Pupils will look at the relationship between Christians and Sin. Pupils will compare the different world religions and their views.

Physical Education – Pupils will take on leader roles within small groups across a range of sporting activities and lead a group through an invasion activity.

PSHE & British Values – To develop an understanding of different category drugs and unforeseen complexities in life.

Stixwoud

Term 2 Provision map

Duke of Edinburgh – The pupils will continue to work on navigation skills for the expedition section. The pupils will begin to take part in golf for their physical section and begin their volunteering section by creating a campaign within school.

Maths – Pupils will begin to practice working with unknowns on both sides of equations, building their knowledge to solve simultaneous equations.

Science – Pupils will understand the elements in the periodic table. Students will learn how to use the periodic table and what the tiles represent. Students will delve into the history of how it was made.

Option A- PE – Short-term and long term effects of exercise.

Engineering – Define different types of engineering.

Option B – History – Elizabethan England

Animal care – Care & needs of pets.

Option C – Food & Cookery – Food room safety and risks. Practical cooking. Reasons for recipes

Art – Students will focus on the development of curating their project