Sherwood Provision Map
Weeks – 8-14

Areas of Learning

English: Instructions, figurative language, story.

Maths: Number – multiplication and division, shape, place value

Science: nutrition, diet and food waste, rocks

History: Who were Roman soldiers?

Geography: Food and the environment.

RE: What does pilgrimage mean to individuals and communities?

Art: Roman shield design and construction.

Computing: Stop-frame animation

Technology: Cooking Italian food

PE: Invasion Games

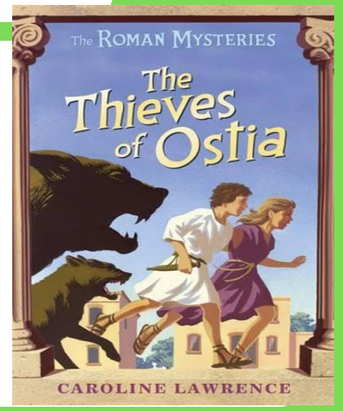

MFL: Clothes – getting dressed in France

PSHE: Health and Wellbeing

Music: Call and response

Text: The Thieves of Ostia by Caroline Lawrence

Thieves of Ostia: Escape from Pompeii by Caroline Lawrence is an exciting mystery set in the ancient city of Pompeii. The story follows a young girl named Flavia and her friends as they explore the bustling streets, uncover secrets, and solve a crime, all while facing the threat of a volcanic eruption from Mount Vesuvius.

Educational Visits

Supermarket visit – where does our food come from?

Lincoln – Evidence of Roman legacy

Curiosity & Knowledge

English: Children will write instructions based on prior learning about the Thieves of Ostia, they will learn figurative and literal language and how to use them for effect, they will write stories.

Maths: Children will build upon prior knowledge of number and place value to multiply and divide, developing their times tables and division facts recall, they will learn different angles, lines and shapes and use them to compare different shapes, partitioning, comparing , rounding numbers.

Science: Children will develop knowledge and understanding of nutrition, the importance of a balanced diet and food groups, they will learn about how to reduce food waste, identify, classify and test different types of rocks.

Computing: Children will develop their knowledge and understanding of stop-frame animation, exploring types of animation, planning and creating their own animation using technology.

Explore & Make

Geography: Develop and understanding of the environmental and human impact on where our food comes from.

History: Develop and understanding of who Roman soldiers were, their lifestyle, equipment, how they fought in battle.

Art & Design: Create a personalized Roman shield including meaningful symbols, accurate construction and painting.

MFL: Describing clothes, where to put adjectives and articles

Music: focusing on call and response using beats in a bar, internalizing pulse and rhythm, ostinato blues.

RE: compare sacred and non-sacred places across different religions, explore sensory experiences and ask meaningful questions.

Technology: Cooking and preparing Italian food, using equipment safely, keeping workspace hygienic.

Health & Me

PSHE: healthy habits – diet, exercise, physical health, germs, bacteria and viruses and what is mental health.

Outdoor Education: Pupils develop fire skills, being able to identify natural tinders and use different fire starting methods.

PE: Pupils develop their skills in invasion games, focusing on passing, movement, teamwork, decision-making and applying tactics.

Emotional Intelligence: to identify emotions triggers and early warning signs.

Citizenship: to develop understanding of online reputation and online bullying.